

SECRET

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 10 March 1967

25X1

1. [REDACTED] Mr. Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called asking that if, as and when Svetlana, daughter of the late Soviet dictator, Josef Stalin, gets here, the Subcommittee wants very much to have her.

25X1

2. [REDACTED] Mrs. Muromcew, in the office of Senator Clifford Case, called asking that she be sent two professional brochures of the Agency for constituents of the Senator's interested in educational qualifications for a position with the CIA.

25X1

3. [REDACTED] Talked to Bill Lewis, in the office of Senator Margaret Chase Smith, to confirm that the Senator's office planned no advance communication [REDACTED] that an Agency official was coming up to see them.

25X1

25X1

4. [REDACTED] Talked with Mr. Phil Kelleher, House Armed Services Committee staff, who agreed that the end of next week was perfectly satisfactory to respond to the three-page list of questions to the Agency from the Committee.

Also received, on a loan basis, Volumes 1 and 2 of Secretary McNamara's testimony before the Armed Services Committee.

25X1

5. [REDACTED] Talked with Mr. Russ Blandford, House Armed Services Committee staff, who indicated the Committee wished to measure the validity and accuracy of a paper by the National Strategy Committee of the American Security Council dealing with the Soviet military threat against the Agency's view of the threat. Blandford indicated that this in part was the reason for the three-page list of questions.

25X1

6. [REDACTED] Talked with Pat Holt, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, in connection with a letter Senator Fulbright had sent to the President since the assumption made specifically by Senator Fulbright regarding the Agency in that letter was incorrect. I indicated to Holt that things would be somewhat more difficult in the future and that we would simply have to face them when official matters arose.

SECRET